

Mentoring Program

Successful Career in Biosciences

The mentoring program of the Hellenic Bioscientific Association of the USA aims to assist students and early career scientists of Greek descent in Greece or USA on how to:

- Organize their studies and training
- Identify potential career opportunities

The mentors of the program are established biosciences researchers or medical doctors, who currently hold positions in Academia or Biotech industry.

Information and applications for participation:

www.hbausa.org